

REQUEST FOR ACCOMMODATION RE ATTORNEY JILL CLARK

TO: Minnesota Judicial Branch via Carla Heyl, ADA Coordinator

C: Status update in specific cases: First Minnesota v. Clark

From: Jill Clark, Jill Clark, LLC (jill@jillclarkllc.com) 27-CV-2008

Date: December 10, 2012

This Memorandum is a quick update to let the ADA Coordinator know that: 1) I have recovered to a point where I am able to communicate with courts about my status; and 2) I am on track to return to practice on January 7, 2013.

This memorandum requests continued accommodation until that date.

I am requesting that opposing parties and counsel grant this last bit of grace, and not attempt to take advantage of my disability (which is, as the facts will show, the product of a larger problem in our litigation community) in order to gain an advantage in my clients' cases.

Points about this specific case:

Defendants have communicated with plaintiffs in an attempt to resolve matters
W/O COURT.

Points about this specific case:

These cases were removed to federal court.
The city was served, and Mr. Sautter was reminded of the removal on 11/9/12 (see attached email). There have been difficulties with the filing - and JCLC does not have the ability to force the court administrator to file.
