You should have received a copy of the Hearing Summary Notes, at some point following the Hearing and I apologize that you did not; it is attached. Also, it was included in my response to your Appeal, which you've obviously received. Since your Appeal was submitted and received immediately following the Hearing, you would not have had the Hearing Officers Hearing Summary by the time you submitted your Appeal regardless if it had been sent to you or not.

Is there some reason that my office was never served with a copy of the HRU order on Rickmyer? You know I am his attorney of record, and yet I never received a copy. Offender tried to mail a copy from prison, but all pages did not arrive. Your Unit's interference with the right to elect private counsel is noted.

How can you expect me to write the appeal in any intelligent fashion without the order? If I do not have the order by the end of the work day today, I will make a complaint about your Unit to Central Office.
