

REQUEST FOR ACCOMMODATION RE ATTORNEY JILL CLARK

TO: United States District Court, District of Minnesota via Clerk of Court

C: Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals via Clerk of Court; USD0J; status update in specific cases: _____

From: Jill Clark, Jill Clark, LLC (jill@jillclarkllc.com)

Date: December 10, 2012

This Memorandum is a quick update to let the Clerk know that: 1) I have recovered to a point where I am able to communicate with courts about my status; and 2) I am on track to return to practice on the date set forth in my Memorandum dated October 18, 2012 request for accommodation.

This memorandum requests continued accommodation until January 7, 2013.

I am requesting that opposing parties and counsel grant this last bit of grace, and not attempt to take advantage of my disability (which is, as the facts will show, the product of a larger problem in our litigation community) in order to gain an advantage in my clients' cases.
